SNAP CONGRATULATES AWARD RECIPIENTS

Snap has honoured its top performing centres at a series of award dinners across the country.

The last of the annual awards was held in Perth last night.

CEO Grant Vernon said the awards recognised the Snap centres with excellent sales results and also those franchise owners that made an outstanding contribution.

The Snap centre with the top sales performance was Snap Melbourne, Spencer St while Snap Sydney, Clarence St won the national Sales Achievement Award.

Snap The Rocks won the best Sales Improvement award.

“Obviously sales performance is very important and I congratulate our top performing centres for 2008/09,” Grant said.

“However, owning a Snap centre is more than just selling printing services and we like to recognise the enormous efforts made by our franchise owners.

Grant said Snap's "Paddy Thomson" award, named after the company's first CEO, recognised those franchise owners who have made an outstanding contribution to their business, their community and Snap as a whole.

Grant said this year's winners Damien and Leanne Cook were worthy recipients.

The couple own two Snap centres, Snap Sydney, Castlereagh St and Silverwater.

Other major winners include:

Best New Franchise Owner:

Shane and Chris Bertolotti - Snap Dalby and Toowoomba, QLD

Best Performing Centre in a Regional Territory:

Snap Albury / Wodonga

Hall of Fame:

Ian and Sharon Monro – Snap Flinders St, Adelaide

Greg and Robyn Barlow – Snap Albury / Wodonga
